

Congratulations, graduates

Globe churches honored high school graduates during worship services Sunday morning. The Rev. James Marler, pastor at Trinity Baptist Church presented six seniors with B'ble gifts (top left). They were (l-r) Janet Kuykendall, Dennis Kittrell, Debbie Anderson, Phyllis Kisselburg, Robert Nix and Keith Murray. Missing from the group was Ronnie Trevillyan who was engaged in assisting the US Forest Service with fire-fighting. At St. Paul's United Methodist (top right) graduate students honored with gift books from the Women's Society of Christian Service were (l-r) Susan Steadle, Debbie Michael, Janie Lopez and Judy Harrington who were presented the mementoes by the Rev. A. Paul Stout. Others receiving equal honors were Janet Walker, Patty Sowden, Sandra Stewart, Bethel Blumer, Eddie Kent and Barbara Cloudt. At Holy Angels Church an estimated 80 seniors from the parish and other religious affiliations combined attended a special Folk Mass. Brunch was served in the parish hall for graduates immediately after Mass. Conducting the service was the Rev. William Burke, Holy Angels associate pastor. Music provided during the mass was under the direction of Sister Mary Columba.
