

Sophomore float

Little Blue Riding Hood was the theme of the float built by Globe High School sophomores for the homecoming parade and placing first in competition. The float featured a Globe Tiger in bed just waiting for Little Blue Riding Hood in the form of a Safford Bulldog to enter and be devoured. A lot of work went into the float and more will be required next year to stay on top. Sophomores are looking forward to a stiff competition.